

Twitter Chat Prompts:

Responses from Teachers, Educators and Chapter Advisers

1. Why is it important for high school students to know about Family & Consumer Sciences career opportunities? How can a FCS degree help? #fcseday
2. What is the most important skill you learned through a Family and Consumer Sciences educator? #fcseday
3. What can current FCS educators share about the advantages of their career choice? #fcseday
4. How can we help parents and the general public learn more about this amazing career option? #fcseday
5. Many parents say they want their children to learn Real World Skills so kids can practice “adulting.” What “real world skills” can you attribute to your FCS classes? #fcseday
6. What skills do you feel are most important to be a successful FCS educator? #fcseday
7. In a world where life balance is becoming more difficult to maintain but more valued, how can FCS educators prepare our next generation of workforce to live a healthy balanced life? #fcseday
8. Teacher Educators: What is the skill set that you feel a potential FCS educator candidate needs the most to be successful? #fcseday

Responses from Students

9. Current college students preparing for an FCS ed degree: who inspired you to pursue this career option? #fcseday
10. FCS high school students: Tell us your favorite part of taking FCS courses. #fcseday
11. Give a shout out to your favorite FCS educator and why they are your favorite? #fcseday
12. Post a pic of you and your FCS Educator helping your community. #fcseday
13. Tweet your future FCS Career goals! #fcseday
14. Tag your favorite FCS celebrity and why they inspire you. #fcseday

Video Conversation Starters:

1. If you wanted to become a Family and Consumer Sciences Teacher, where would you start?
2. What colleges offer Family and Consumer Sciences Majors? Where can you find this information?
3. What do Family and Consumer Sciences Teachers do?
4. Family, Career and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA) is often advised by FCS teachers, why is this a good fit?
5. What do you learn in Family and Consumer Sciences classes that is different than other courses?
6. What careers are in the Family and Consumer Sciences field?
7. Where can you find information about teacher salaries and responsibilities?
8. What careers do Family and Consumer Sciences course prepare you for?