

Financial Fitness Partners and Collaborators

There are many individuals, groups, and organizations right in your community or neighborhood that are interested in money-related issues. Here are some ideas to help members WORK WITH OTHERS on their Financial Fitness projects.

Educational

- family and consumer sciences teachers
- school treasurer/accountant
- administration/office
- career and technical student organizations
- business education department
- library
- parent-teacher organizations
- adult education programs
- community college or university
- State Department of Education
- _____
- _____

Community-Based

- Cooperative Extension
- local and county agencies/offices
 - public assistance agencies
 - consumer protection agencies
 - tax agencies
- public library
- YWCA/YMCA
- civic organizations
 - Chamber of Commerce
 - Junior Achievement
 - business-oriented organizations
 - _____
 - _____
- credit counseling services
- social services professionals
- _____
- _____

Businesses

- financial institutions
- bankers
- financial planners
- credit advisers
- certified public accountants
- business comptrollers
- store credit managers
- mortgage companies
- consumer advisers
- investment advisers
- insurance agencies
- insurance companies
- family and consumer sciences professionals in business
- _____
- _____