RE: National STAR Events Volunteer Assignment

Thank you for volunteering to assist with the 2018 National FCCLA STAR Events in Atlanta, Georgia. You have been assigned as a Relief Volunteer for either the Friday, June 29 events or the Saturday, June 30 events.

We receive many cancellations prior to the conference as well as no-shows onsite. Your role as a relief volunteer is incredibly important for STAR Events to run smoothly and effectively.

Part of the philosophy of STAR Events is that establishing a team of adult and youth evaluators for each event fosters respect and interaction between youth and adults. STAR Events volunteer teams are typically made up of two adult evaluators, one student evaluator, one adult room consultant, and one student room consultant.

Please attend the Relief Volunteer Orientation on either Thursday or Friday at 7:30 a.m., depending on your assignment. Orientations are located as follows:

Omni Atlanta Relief Volunteers
Friday Relief Volunteer Orientation – Grand Ballroom Prefunction Lobby
Saturday Relief Volunteer Orientation – Grand Ballroom Prefunction Lobby

Atlanta Marriott Marquis Relief Volunteers
Friday Relief Volunteer Orientation – Room M202
Saturday Relief Volunteer Orientation – Room M109

The orientation session conducted prior to the events will provide an opportunity to answer any questions you may have. If you are not assigned to an event before 9:00 a.m., you will be released to attend other conference activities.

If you are assigned onsite, STAR Events volunteers are expected to stay with their assigned event until released by the Event Lead Consultant, which is typically no later than 5:00 p.m. Each assigned volunteer will receive $10 to help cover lunch costs for the day.

You may still receive an assignment before leaving for the National Leadership Conference. The email dated closest to the National Leadership Conference will be your official assignment. Please take a few moments and review the information, especially the volunteer informational video, at <http://fcclainc.org/programs/leadership-conference-competitive-events-information.php>.

Thank you again for volunteering your time. If you have any questions, please contact Kayelani Kirschbaum, Competitive Events Intern, at kkirschbaum@fcclainc.org. We look forward to seeing you at the 2018 National Leadership Conference!
