

STOP the Violence is a national program that empowers youth with attitudes, skills, and resources in order to recognize, report, and reduce youth violence.

The FCCLA STOP (Students Taking On Prevention) the Violence program empowers youth with attitudes, skills, and resources in order to recognize, report, and reduce youth violence.

FCCLA members use peer education to-

- reach their peers with violence prevention education
- recognize warning signs of potential youth violence
- encourage young people to report troubling behavior
- collaborate with school and community resources to address youth violence
- develop and implement local action projects to reduce the potential for violence in their school
