REAL WORLD SKILLS THROUGH FCS EDUCATION
2020-2021 HIGHLIGHTS

by Sandy Spavone, FCCLA Executive Director

This year has been an historic year for Family, Career and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA) as we concluded our 75th anniversary celebration, hosted our first-ever Virtual Leadership Experience and Hybrid National Leadership Conference, and pivoted to learn new ways to lead families, careers, and communities “Beyond Measure” through a global pandemic.

The 2020-2021 fiscal year proved to be a time of perseverance for FCCLA. Despite nationwide mask mandates, social distancing guidelines, and virtual learning, FCCLA formed new partnerships, recruited new members, introduced new programs, developed new resources, strengthened brand recognition, and sustained fiscal security for the organization caused by the COVID-19 pandemic. These efforts align with the mission and vision of FCCLA of providing students the opportunity to strengthen employability skills through exploring Career Pathways, participating in Competitive Events, engaging in National Programs, leading community service projects, and building strong families.

Despite a membership decrease to 155,098 members in 4,253 chapters across 47 states, American Samoa, and Puerto Rico, FCCLA saw success in our two temporary relief packages, with 870 chapters enrolling in one of the two packages, attributing to 47,950 members. Additionally, for the sixth year in row, FCCLA saw a percentage increase in our male population, reaching 29.61%, as well as an increase in diversity among our membership. Due to the success of the two temporary relief packages, FCCLA will again offer two relief packages throughout the 2021-2022 school year, with a similar structure to those offered last year.

FCCLA is hopeful we can continue to build on our 2020 results and remains thankful for the endless support and dedication of our National Board of Directors, National Staff, Chapter and State Advisers, and members in leading the organization toward new horizons. In looking forward to the year ahead, FCCLA is excited to see members continue to expand their leadership potential and develop skills for life as they make a difference in homes and workplaces across America.
FCCLA enables members to go “Beyond Measure” through leading others, developing new skills, exploring career opportunities, building strong families, and giving back to their communities. This year has been a memorable chapter as FCCLA secured new partnerships and continues to focus on career opportunities and leadership experiences aimed at strengthening the foundation of families across America.

FCCLA National Programs and Competitive Events support Career and Technical Education CTE students’ development of knowledge and skills, enhancing the classroom experience and career pathway initiatives. FCCLA is integrated into FCS and is intracurricular, exposing students to work-based learning, business and industry networks, and industry-recognized certifications.
