

Call for Presentation Proposals - Adult

FCCLA is offering advisers, alumni, exhibitors, and sponsors the opportunity to submit an application to host a presentation during the 2022 National Leadership Conference in San Diego, CA. Presenting during NLC is the perfect opportunity to provide expertise, help drive change, and connect with like-minded individuals.

Presentation proposals that examine topics relevant to conference themes, encourage critical inquiry, demonstrate informed action, and emphasize interdisciplinary integration are encouraged.

Presentation proposal must be submitted by March 15 at 5:00 PM ET.

Before beginning your proposal, please review the application questions found below and compile all necessary information. Once you begin your application, you will be unable to save and return to it at a later time. All presentation proposals must be submitted via the online application form in order to be considered. (<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/2022NLCAdult>)

Applicants must also prepare a 1-minute introductory video. During the video, you must introduce yourself, provide a brief overview of what your presentation will cover, and any additional information you would like to share. The video must be 1-minute or less. Only YouTube or Vimeo links can be accepted. You will submit your video link at the bottom of this form.

1. PRESENTATION TYPE (SELECT ONE)

- RED Talk (15-min)
FCCLA's RED Talks are a non-traditional, short, and highly engaging presentation that highlight one of FCCLA's four Career Pathways or a National Program. FCCLA RED Talks will have a time limit of fifteen minutes for each presentation. Presenters should be prepared to speak for 10-12 minutes and use the remaining 3-5 minutes for questions and answers. Presenters will only be provided with one (1) stand microphone. This presentation type does not permit PowerPoint presentations.
- Youth Workshop (30-min)
FCCLA's Youth Workshops are highly engaging, skill-building workshops that challenge and inspire attendees to make an impact in their chapter and communities long after they leave the conference. These presentations must align with one or more of FCCLA's Career Pathways and include a hands-on activity or opportunity for attendee engagement. FCCLA Youth Workshops have a time limit of thirty (30) minutes. Presenters will be provided with one (1) stand microphone and one (1) projector and screen.

16. PLEASE CHECK OFF THAT YOU CONFIRM THE FOLLOWING:

- Should your presentation application be selected, all travel and hotel expenses are the responsibility of the presenter. National FCCLA does not reimburse presenters for any travel expenses.
- If selected, I (presenter) agree to meet all deadlines and travel to the FCCLA National Leadership Conference in San Diego.
- I understand that presentations are expected to be interacting, engaging, and creative.
- I understand that presentations at the National Leadership Conference are expected to support Family and Consumer Sciences (FCS) content, FCCLA National Programs, Career Pathways, or Competitive Events.
- I understand that commercial solicitation is prohibited for all presentations. If you are representing a commercial interest, your presentation must be educational in nature. If the essential purpose of a proposal promotes books, materials, or services for sale, it will not be accepted.
- FCCLA seeks to continually expand the representation of and build capacity for diverse perspectives within the organization. Diversity is an inclusive concept which encompasses, but is not limited to race, ethnicity, class, gender, age, sexuality, ability, educational attainment, spiritual beliefs, creed, culture, tribal affiliation, nationality, immigration status, political beliefs, and veteran status. I have taken into consideration this equity, diversity, and inclusion statement as I developed my presentation content to submit this proposal.
