2027 Chapter Adviser Summit
San Antonio, TX
Agenda
(as of November 3, 2026)

START	END	EVENT
Friday, January 15
9:15 AM	10:15 AM	Beginner Adviser Track: Choose Your Trail: Navigating FCCLA National Programs You don't have to tackle the entire range! Learn how to select National Programs that align with your curriculum, students, chapter goals, and community.	Experienced Adviser Track: Beyond the Horizon: Taking National Programs Further Turn National Programs into sustained, student-led initiatives that produce measurable impact, community partnerships, recognition opportunities, and stronger connections to curriculum.
10:30 AM	11:00 AM	Partner Session - Work Zone Safe
11:00 AM	12:00 PM	Beginner Adviser Track: STAR Events on the Range: Bringing Competition Into the Classroom Discover how STAR Events can become meaningful classroom projects, assessments, and learning experiences instead of something that happens only outside the school day.	Experienced Adviser Track: Raising the Bar: STAR Events as Curriculum Take STAR Events beyond competition by reverse-engineering event requirements into standards-aligned instruction, authentic assessments, and project-based learning.
12:00 PM	1:30 PM	Lunch on Own
1:30 PM	2:30 PM	Show Your Skills: Getting Started with Skill Demonstration Events Explore Skill Demonstration Events, how students participate, preparation strategies, and simple ways to introduce these opportunities through classroom instruction.
2:30 PM	3:30 PM	Saddling Up for the Future: From FCCLA Experience to Career Skills Students are gaining valuable career-ready skills through FCCLA, but do they recognize them? Advisers will unpack everyday FCCLA experiences and identify the communication, leadership, collaboration, problem-solving, technical, and employability skills students are developing along the way.
3:30 PM	4:30 PM	Finding Your Trail: Connecting FCCLA to Career Clusters Help students see where their FCS experiences can take them! This session introduces advisers to meaningful connections between FCCLA, Family and Consumer Sciences, and Career Clusters. Advisers will explore how FCCLA experiences, National Programs, Competitive Events, leadership opportunities, and classroom instruction can help students discover careers and develop transferable skills.
6:00 PM	9:00 PM	Optional Event: Riverboat Tour to Pearl District & Shopping/Dinner on Own*
		Dinner and Evening on Own
Saturday, January 16
7:00 AM	8:00 AM	Coffee & Pastries Sponsored by Stukent
8:00 AM	9:50 AM	The Great Adviser Trading Post Come with one great idea. Leave with a saddlebag full of them! This fast-paced, collaborative idea exchange brings advisers together to share the strategies, resources, and activities that are working in their classrooms and chapters. Every attendee is encouraged to bring one idea worth stealing to share with fellow advisers. Participants will rotate through themed "Trading Posts" focused on topics such as classroom integration, membership and recruitment, chapter meetings, fundraising, Competitive Events, National Programs, officer development, community service, chapter management, recognition, conference preparation, and chapter traditions. Advisers will swap ideas, share resources, and connect with others who are tackling similar challenges.
10:00 AM	10:50 AM	Boots on the Ground: FCCLA Classroom Integration Lab It's time to put ideas into action! In this hands-on workshop, advisers will explore practical ways to make FCCLA an intentional part of classroom instruction, rather than something extra added to an already full plate. Participants will bring an existing FCS lesson or unit and transform it by incorporating FCCLA resources, National Programs, STAR Events, Skill Demonstration Events, leadership and career-readiness opportunities, community service, FCCLA partners, and resources from the Adviser and Knowledge Hubs. Using the pathway FCS Standards → Classroom Instruction → FCCLA → Student Experience → Assessment, advisers will create meaningful connections between curriculum and FCCLA while collaborating and exchanging ideas with fellow educators.
11:00 AM	11:50 AM	Around the Campfire: Adviser Trail Talk A facilitated end-of-CAS conversation to ask questions, share discoveries, make connections, and identify one idea to take back to your chapter.
12:00 PM		Departure and Travel Home
