

CHAPTER IN REVIEW PORTFOLIO

An individual or team event recognizes chapters that develop and implement a well-balanced Program of Work (POW) and promote FCCLA and Family and Consumer Sciences to the community. Participants must prepare a portfolio and an oral presentation.

ELIGIBILITY & GENERAL INFORMATION

1. Review “Eligibility and General Rules for All Levels of Competition” on page 8 prior to event planning and preparation.
2. Participants are encouraged to bring fully charged devices such as laptops, tablets, etc., to use for audiovisual presentation at competitions.
3. Chapters with multiple entries in this event must submit different projects for each entry. All projects must be developed and completed during a one-year span beginning July 1 and ending June 30 of the school year before the National Leadership Conference (NLC) and must be the work of the participant(s) only.
4. National Leadership Conference (NLC) participants are required to view the online orientation video and submit the STAR Events Online Orientation Form by the deadline. The video and form will be on the FCCLA Student Portal and can be found under Surveys Applications. Only one form per entry is required. Contact your State Adviser for orientation procedures for competitions held prior to the National Leadership Conference (NLC).
5. Participants who do not follow the event guidelines or the definition of the event, their project will not be considered for evaluation. However, the participant can still participate in the competition by giving an oral presentation and will only be evaluated based on that presentation.

Our project was designed to encourage others and showcase our chapter's service and activities to others. – Ohio FCCLA Member

Over the past few years, we have seen an increase in membership due to the efforts and planning of FCCLA officers and advisers. We want to see even more members in our chapter, so we are using this event to help others understand what we do. – Texas FCCLA Members

We wanted to show others the wonderful things we have accomplished this year in our chapter's activities. We have worked hard to develop leadership opportunities for our members as they discover the things they and FCCLA can do together! – Utah FCCLA Members
