Examples of Chapter in Review Portfolio Projects:

Our portfolio is a highlight of every activity and accomplishment that our chapter did this year. We conducted multiple service projects, fun events, and spread the word about FCCLA and becoming a responsible leader! – West Virginia FCCLA Member

Through the activities of the Hands in Action chapter, we will motivate young people from our school through the arts and their skills to perform community service and solve situations in our community. This allows us to develop leadership, benefit from a better school environment, and promote our FCCLA chapter. – Puerto Rico FCCLA Members

“Leaders with Passion” is our project presenting a year in review filled with accomplishment, fun, and success. – Ohio FCCLA Members
