Entrepreneurship, an individual or team event, recognizes participants who develop a plan for a small business using Family and Consumer Sciences skills and sound business practices. The business must relate to an area of Family and Consumer Sciences education or related occupations. Participants must prepare a portfolio containing a written business plan, which they are not required to have implemented, and an oral presentation.

Examples of Entrepreneurship Projects:

360 Degrees is a rehabilitation center for teens who have been released out of juvenile detention. This center provides teens with education and resources so that they can learn new skills and have a more successful start for their future. – Arizona FCCLA Member

Our business is Outspoken, a fast-casual health-oriented sandwich shop located near a college campus. We strive to serve soups, salads, and sandwiches to promote healthy living. A large part of our target market are cyclists in our area. – Colorado FCCLA Member

Our project focused on creating a cost-effective daycare center that caters to all kids. We are working to create the best environment possible for children to learn while having a good, safe time. – Florida FCCLA Member

I created an event planning business called “Whatever You Wish Grand Events.” This business allows me to partner with the Make a Wish Foundation, so profits from certain events go straight to charity. – Michigan FCCLA Member

Our business, Budget Builders, is an online financial education service. We want to reach out to teens to help them learn to manage money, build budgets, and help them achieve their goals. – Nevada FCCLA Member
