FCCLA’s 75th Anniversary Leadership Hall of Fame FAQs

1. What is the FCCLA Leadership Hall of Fame?
   • The Leadership Hall of Fame recognizes those who have worked to help FCCLA reach its goals and have made a lasting impact on the organization. Leadership Hall of Fame inductees embody the spirit of FCCLA and are leaders within their family, careers, and communities within various industries.

2. What makes a good nomination?
   • Nominations must be completely researched, with all questions answered fully. Please be as descriptive as possible when completing a nomination form. All supporting materials submitted will be sent to the selection committee. The more information provided, the better.

3. Who can be nominated for the Leadership Hall of Fame?
   • A nominee for induction into the FCCLA Leadership Hall of Fame shall have had an interest in Family, Career & Community Leaders of America, Future Homemakers of America or New Homemakers of America, in any capacity. The Leadership Hall of Fame seeks to recognize members, advisers, alumni, state staff, volunteers, partners, and others whose presence left a lasting mark on the organization.

4. Is it a requirement that the nominee must be a current or past member of FCCLA/FHA Hero?
   • No.

5. Can I nominate someone who has passed away?
   • The Leadership Hall of Fame will accept both living and posthumous nominations.

6. Who can submit a nomination?
   • Anyone.

7. How many nominations can an individual person or state association submit?
   • There is no limit to the number of nominations that may be submitted from an individual person or state association.

8. How many nominees will be selected?
   • 75 individuals

9. How are the 75 individuals selected?
   • After the nomination form closes on Friday, December 13 the submitted nominations will be sorted by the state affiliation of the nominee. Each state adviser will receive the nomination forms for their state by Friday, December 20th. The state adviser will then have until Friday, January 17th to work with their state to verify the information in nomination forms. If a nomination form is lacking information, the affiliated state will reach out to the nominator to provide more information on the nominee. After the state has verified their nominations and ensured that all are fully completed, the state adviser will send the forms back to National FCCLA with any additional information that was obtained. Once all forms are received back from the states, the National Selection Committee will work to evaluate all submitted nominations and select the 75 nominees that will be inducted.
10. Who is on the National Selection Committee?
   • The national selection committee is comprised of members of the National Board of Directors Executive Committee.

11. Does each state need to form their own selection committee?
   • No. The responsibility of the state associations will only be to verify nomination form information and seek additional information if a form was not fully completed or is lacking details. However, state associations may choose to form a small verification committee to assist dependent upon how many nominations were submitted for their state.

12. When will the 75 selected inductees be announced?
   • Mid-February

13. Will I receive notification when winners are announced?
   • Yes. Selected nominees will be contacted via phone call and email to be informed of their selection. An official letter will also be sent to all nominees and nominators that will include a sample press release.

14. When will the nominees be inducted into the Leadership Hall of Fame?
   • Inductees will be honored during the 2020 National Leadership Conference in Washington, D.C. at the Red Tie Awards Dinner on July 6, 2020.

15. What is the Red Tie Awards Dinner?
   • The Red Tie Awards Dinner will honor leaders who have significantly contributed to the legacy of FCCLA.

16. How do I purchase a ticket for the Red Tie Awards Dinner?
   • https://fccla75thawardsdinner.eventbrite.com/

17. Can I bring a group to the Red Tie Awards Dinner?
