

Future Adviser Academy Sessions: Explore

The Future Adviser Academy offers participants networking opportunities, keynote speakers, and engaging topics on how to start and lead an FCCLA Chapter that will be integrated into their FCS classrooms. This Academy includes four networking sessions per year, each featuring a keynote topic and breakout sessions. Members benefit from access to key portal resources. Registration is complimentary to the 2026 National Leadership Conference if Future Adviser Academy requirements are met and the participant applies and is selected for this complimentary registration.

Participants are required to attend and participate in three (3) of four (4) networking opportunities and complete one (1) Adviser Enhancement in order to be considered for recognition.

LESSON	TOPIC	DESCRIPTION
1	Introduction to FCCLA and the Future Adviser Academy	This session serves as an introductory overview of FCCLA (Family, Career and Community Leaders of America). Participants will learn about the organization's history, mission, and core values, and will gain a clear understanding of their role as a future FCS teacher and FCCLA Adviser.
2	FCCLA 101	Join us for this FCCLA 101 session designed specifically for postsecondary members who will be new Advisers. This comprehensive session will provide you with an essential overview of FCCLA, including its mission, vision, and key programs. You will learn about the various opportunities FCCLA offers for student engagement, leadership development, and community involvement.
3	The FCCLA Adviser	Learn about your key responsibilities, how to support student leaders, and where to find essential resources at the national and state levels. Walk away with practical strategies, helpful tools, and the confidence to guide your FCCLA Members to success.
4	Integrating FCCLA into the Classroom	Unlock the full potential of FCCLA within your classroom with our "Integrating FCCLA into the Classroom" session. This dynamic workshop is designed to help educators seamlessly incorporate FCCLA's programs and initiatives into their everyday teaching practices.
