

STAND UP

Stand Up is a national program that guides members in advocacy activities to improve the quality of life in their communities. Members develop their voice to make a positive impact.

Stand Up is a national FCCLA peer education program that guides members to develop, plan, carry out, and evaluate advocacy activities to improve the quality of life in their communities. Members develop their voice to make a positive impact. Through their projects, members experience character development and improve their critical and creative thinking, interpersonal communication, leadership, practical knowledge, and career preparation.

Members learn more about how to:

- Assess current needs,
- Educate others regarding concerns,
- Advocate so that they can make a difference now and in the future.

What's Inside

Chapter advisers can purchase the electronic Stand Up National Program for $60 by visiting the FCCLA Portal E-Store. The program includes:

- 3 Comprehensive Units
- 18 Ready-to-Use Lesson Plans
- Over 200 Interactive Activities

Classroom Impact

FCCLA's Stand Up program empowers students to take action on issues they care about. This resource guides students to:

- Identify and address community issues.
- Develop skills to advocate for positive change.
- Collaborate with others to implement solutions.
- Build confidence in public speaking and leadership.
- Strengthen their role as active citizens in their communities.

Awards

FCCLA offers national recognition to chapters that complete Stand Up projects. This honor includes cash awards and special recognition at the National Leadership Conference, online, and in the FCCLA newsletter for the top chapters. Chapters apply online for recognition for their hard work and innovative projects with the national Stand Up Program Award Application available in the FCCLA national membership portal.
